

We partner with Rupa Health for specialty labs orders!

Rupa Health is an online platform for specialty lab testing. They distribute lab kits for hormone testing, mold and heavy metals testing, microbiome testing, and much more.

Benefits of Rupa ✨

HSA, FSA, and Streamlined Online Payment

Rupa Health gives patients the wholesale price for lab tests. You can also pay using an HSA or FSA card, or split payments up over a 3-month payment plan.

Kits Shipped To Your Home

Lab kits are shipped directly to your home. Most tests can be completed entirely at home, and some will require blood draws. Rupa Health will send you options for your blood draw if one is required.

Instructions & Support

Rupa sends you instructions on your testing ahead of time, and provides support questions you may have during the process.
